BONUS BONANZA OFFERS UP TO RM1 MILLION IN CASH AND KIND

KUALA LUMPUR: Four Standard Chartered Bank Malaysia Berhad credit card members got their bonuses early this year through the bank's Bonus Bonanza campaign. A total of RM500,000 is up for grabs every month until Jan 31 next year.

The Grand Prize of RM100,000 was won by Danison Tan Jin Kwan when he signed up for a Standard Chartered Gold MasterCard.

The campaign also features new monthly bonuses for existing members. Three existing members won by spending on their credit cards.

The first prize went to Lee Chee Fong, who won a bonus equivalent to six months of her salary. The second prize went to Sam Ah Khew, who won a bonus equivalent of three months' salary. Teoh Ching Teck won the third prize bonus equivalent of a month's salary.

"At Standard Chartered, we have always looked at creative ways to reward our customers. Bonus Bonanza is our biggest rewards campaign with up to RM1 million worth of cash bonuses and gifts to be won," said the bank's Country Head of Consumer

Banking Ho Toon Bah.

Throughout the campaign period from Sept 8, 2008 to Jan 31, 2009, every Standard Chartered card member – both new and existing – gets multiple chances to win an early bonus.

For the grand prize of RM100,000, every new approved card earns 1,000 chances to win, while for existing card members, every 10,000 choice points redeemed earns 10,000 chances to win. There are four more months of bonuses to be won!

Law portal holds competition on popular topics

A LOCAL legal community portal, eLawyer, is organising a blog writing competition for lawyers, law students and bloggers.

The competition features the following "hot" topics:

» Towards an independent judiciary in Malaysia

» Common Bar Exams: The creation of a new problem or a solution for an old one?

» Welcome CheDet.com: the impact of Tun Mahathir's blog

» Anti-party Hopping Law – agree or disagree?

Participants can choose any one of the above topics and submit their features in not more than 1,000 words.

The grand prize is RM500, while prizes for first and second runners up are RM200 and RM100 respectively. Ten consolation prize winners will also receive an eLawyer merchandise.

The event is sponsored by the Law Society, Universiti Malaya; UK Malaysian Law Student Union; Law Student's Union; International Islamic University Malaysia; Law & Commerce Society; Management & Science University and Law Society; and Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia.

The panel of judges comprises the following:

» Dr Azmi Sharom an associate professor at the Faculty of Law, Universiti Malaya, who is known for his bold and critical view on various issues regarding the democracy and constitutional law in Malaysia.

» Lee Shih – a practising lawyer and a member of the KL Bar Committee.

» Fahri Azzat – a practising lawyer who is a member of the IT Committee under KL Bar committee. Fahri is a blogger and is also the founder of an online email forum – The Rostrum, for legal professionals to discuss issues concerning the legal industry.
